

Personal Profile
Steve Eisenberg, Managing Director

Steve Eisenberg is Co-founder and Managing Director of Reunion Power LLC, a privately held energy company founded in 2000

Mr. Eisenberg is responsible for Reunion Power's strategic direction, finance, administration and project development activities. Mr. Eisenberg has over twenty years of experience in power project development and project finance and more than ten years in commercial and investment banking and corporate finance. Mr. Eisenberg was a lead developer for the eight power projects successfully developed by the Kamine-Besicorp partnership which successfully developed, financed and managed eight co-generation projects with a total capacity of 440 megawatts, with specific emphasis on power sales, local and utility matters and project finance.

Mr. Eisenberg holds a BS in Economics from the State University of New York and an MBA in Finance from Fairleigh Dickinson University.

About Reunion Power

Reunion Power provides expertise in the asset management of power generation projects and the development of new power generation projects with an emphasis in wind power and other clean energy technologies.

Collectively, the Company brings over 100 years of experience in the wind, renewable and conventional power sectors. Reunion has managed over 180 MW of operating wind generation facilities for over 5 years and is currently developing over 250 MW of new wind energy projects.

For more information, visit www.reunionpower.com